

Dear Neighbor,

Caring for the vulnerable is at the heart of Providence St. Jude Medical Center's mission. As one of our loyal supporters in helping advance that mission forward, it is our honor to invite you to our annual Neighbors Helping Neighbors – Concert on the Hill event on Thursday, September 30, 2021 at Summit House Restaurant.

This exciting event, featuring performances from Matt Mauser and the Pete Jacobs Big Band, will support Providence St. Jude's Care for the Poor program which increases access to healthcare and improves health outcomes for vulnerable populations. We will also honor Sister Jane Frances Legacy Society members who have helped secure our hospital's future by including Providence St. Jude in their estate plans.

We request your partnership in helping to close our community's healthcare gap by participating as an event sponsor. This year, Neighbors Helping Neighbors will specifically support Unity House, the new recuperative care and transitional housing site that will be operated in partnership with the Illumination Foundation. This site, which is built within the former Convent attached to the hospital, will serve vulnerable and frail women who are experiencing homelessness and have been hospitalized, and those at imminent risk of homelessness.

The Sisters of St. Joseph of Orange are excited about this new use of their former Convent to meet this emerging need, and we hope that you will join in supporting this important new community partnership.

To register online, please visit stjudememorialfoundation.org/NHN or complete the enclosed sponsorship packet and mail to the Memorial Foundation offices.

If you have any questions on the enclosed sponsorship information, please contact the Memorial Foundation by phone at 714-992-3033 or email SJMF@providence.org.
